Arkansas River Flood Danger Eases Somewhat

By The Associated Press

Floodfighters waited today for the crucial test of their defenses against the mammoth Arkansas River as flood threats ebbed over Morrilton and North Little Rock.

The river neared a crest last night at Morrilton, one day after it topped a small levee in that city and sent water pouring across farmlands.

At North Little Rock, the Arkansas was expected to crest to nearly 28 feet. Crews of men worked desperately yesterday to reinforce defenses of the Crockett addition in the city's east end.

Upstream from Morrilton, the river was falling and the danger appeared over.

Army Engineers were hopeful that levees at Morrilton and near Berryville would hold.

Little peril is expected after the river passes North Little Rock, since the levee system in southeast Arkansas is a strong one.

Cloudy skies and a few scattered showers were in store for Arkansas today, the U. S. Weather Bureau at Little Rock said.

Highways still closed by high water include U. S. 64 between Russellville and Clarksville, state Highway 96 near Fort Smith, and state Highway 7 south of Dardanelle.

Engineers and the state Civil Defense Agency stayed on 24-hour duty yesterday to direct flood defense operations. They said another 50,000 sandbags had arrived from Memphis and were being given out at danger points.

Eight bulldozers and a squad of floodfighters figured in a dramatic skirmish in the battle against the river at North Little Rock yesterday.

Eight Dead in Election Riots in Beirut

By TOM MASTERSON

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—Pre-election violence in Beirut, yesterday claimed the lives of eight demonstrators and left some 70 others wounded. More than 200 rioters were arrested.

Opposition political leaders who called the demonstrations urged supporters to continue a general strike in Beirut "until the government falls and until the criminals who are government officials and employees get their just punishment."

Four hours of violence swept the Moslem quarter of Beirut. It ended only after the Lebanese army moved in tanks and armored cars.

The Damascus radio said strikes and demonstrations also occurred in the Lebanese cities of Tripoli, Sidon and Baalbek.

Lebanon's parliamentary elections are scheduled to begin June 9 and are expected to provide a test of strength between the country's pro-Western and pro-Egyptian factions.

Yesterday, troops and police sought to halt a demonstration and strike called by the opposition National Front in defiance of a government ban on such gatherings.

Wife Delays Trip to Visit Ill Husband

TOKYO (AP)—Her baby's sudden illness today forced a young wife to postpone her race to the bedside of her gravely injured husband in the United States.

Mrs. Tae Moon Cherry, 29, arrived here from Korea this morning with her one-year-old son, Marvin. They were scheduled to leave tonight aboard a special military transport flight to join SP-3C Havi V. Cherry, reported near death in Hot Springs, Ark.

But the Red Cross said Marvin has suffered an attack of dysentery and must stay in a Tokyo hospital at least until next Tuesday. A Red Cross official said the baby has a high fever.

Cherry, of Monticello, Ark., was seriously injured in an auto accident just before leaving Arkansas for his new post, Ft. Holabird, Md. His wife and son were to have joined him there.

LITTLE CIZ

Since peace is as expensive as war, it seems there should be some third alternative that we could afford.

Girl Scout Day Camp Closes Tonight

The Girl Scout Day Camp, in progress all this week, will close today. A count of awards will be held tonight from 7 to 8 in the "Little House" and the public is invited.

Handicraft and art work prepared during the Camp will be on display tonight at the "Little House" in Fair park.

More Severe Weather in Texas Areas

By The Associated Press

More violent weather hammered areas in storm-battered Texas and other sections of the Southwest today but severe storms in the central and northern plains abated.

Tornado activity during the night was reported in eastern New Mexico and West Texas. Severe thunderstorms hit many parts of Texas.

In the north central, the northwestern section of south central, and areas east of the Pecos River.

Heavy rain, with some hail, and strong winds hit the South west storm belt. The Weather Bureau reported hail the size of baseballs pelted the area of Hobbs, N. M., causing considerable property damage.

Wet and stormy weather was reported in wide areas of the country on Memorial Day. Several tornadoes skipped across areas in Texas, Oklahoma, Central Iowa and northeastern Colorado. No casualties were reported.

A brief flash flood resulted from torrential rains that drenched Wichita Falls, Tex., last night. More than 3 inches of rain fell in about half an hour in a thunderstorm that followed a blinding dust storm.

The stormy weather in the central and northern plains tapered off considerably during the night and only light showers were reported in most sections.

On the East Coast, a local heavy rainstorm hit Hatteras, N. C., with a 2-inch down pour in less than six hours.

State to Get
New Batch of Policemen

B LEON HATCH

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas will get a batch of new state troopers this year, but State Police Director Herman Lindsey isn't going to be in any hurry about hiring them.

The legislative act which makes it possible to employ 92 additional persons for the State Police—87 of them troopers—becomes effective July 1.

Lindsey said today that the troopers wouldn't be added to the force until next fall.

He wants to wait until after the annual state police school is held beginning Aug. 18 so that he can see how the prospective new policemen stack up after their four-to-six-weeks training course.

"We have been getting along with the force we have," Lindsey said. "Although we need the new men, I believe we'll do better in the long run to wait and see how they make out at the school."

Successful attendance at the police school is the final customary step before any new trooper is employed—and even then he's on probation for six months—and Lindsey said he didn't plan to change even though the added men a few months earlier.

He explained that the dates for the police school couldn't be pushed up.

Valuable Hints Received in the Morning Mail

NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never suspect if he didn't read his mail.

That one reason why business isn't even better may be the fault of executives. A management expert says the American economy would be 15 per cent more productive if executives would quit worrying and start thinking creatively.

That the average employee still will firmly believe most organizations require two bosses—one to five people, and the other to build morale.

That a British doctor, after having 600 patients sick out their guests, concluded fur on the tongue is usually due to smoking, a local infection of fever, but is no index to stomach or intestinal ailments.

That people who are going deaf seldom have the same degree of loss of hearing in both ears.

That 300 years ago a London advertisement recommended the drinking of coffee as a treatment for eyesores, coughs or colds, consumption, dropsy, gout, scurvy, headaches and a "democratic disease then known as the King's Evil."

That David Atkinson, the baritone, says "an optimist is a guy who thinks he can win a sweepstake but can't get killed in a car crash."

That a century ago girls used to go through the ordeal of swallowing a candle wax in the hope of achieving a pallid complexion, then in the height of fashion.

That the French claim the original mini skirts were aimed at women with cognate before bourbon was born.

That whiskers of the sea lion are prized as toothpicks by the Chinese.

That actor Tom Eyell dangles women's girdles as "the difference."

Russia Claims Fearsome, Giant H-Bomb

WARSAW (AP)—An H-bomb so big that it defies testing, reportedly is claimed by the Soviet Union.

Poland's semi-official Publicity-Information Agency—API—reported Soviet Communist party boss Nikita Khrushchev told a group of visiting Polish journalists about the monster bomb at a meeting in the Kremlin this month.

"This bomb is so big we cannot test it even inside the vast area of the Soviet Union. We couldn't even test it in the Arctic. If we set it off at the North Pole it would melt the icecap and send the oceans spilling over the world," API quoted Khrushchev.

If the polar icecaps ever thawed scientists have estimated ocean levels would climb more than 70 feet, flooding London, New York and other cities.

The API correspondent said Khrushchev told the group to explode the bomb in the most remote northern area of the Soviet Union "would have disastrous results for the whole of Scandinavia," and that one bomb of its size "would be enough for Britain or France."

Neither the U. S. Atomic Energy Commission nor the State Department in Washington had any immediate comment.

Rocky Mound Church
Meet to Start

Rocky Mound Baptist Church will start a revival Sunday, June 2 with the Rev. Wesley Thompson of Prescott bringing the message twice daily, according to the Rev. F. W. White, pastor. Services are to be held at 10 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. daily.

Police gave this account of events leading up to the manhunt's violent climax:

Lankford was cruising in his pocket car when he heard a broadcast saying that two men had burglarized a liquor store on state Highway 5 near the Saline County line. The report said the thieves had made off with between $800 and $1,000 worth of whiskey, 17 cartons of cigarettes and other supplies.

Two men knew each other while both were in the Arkansas state penitentiary several years ago, Smith told officers. He said he met Dunbar recently in Houston, Tex., and Dunbar had a late model automobile. This apparently was the car which was stopped by Lankford early yesterday on a Little Rock street.

Algerian Rebels Kill 302 in a Night of Horror

ALGIERS (AP)—Survivors of a night of horror came out of the mountains today and told how thousands of Arab rebels massacred almost the entire male population of their village 80 miles southeast of Algiers, French officials put the total dead at 302.

Reports of the bloodshed on Tuesday night reached the French yesterday when some of the male survivors staggered out of their hiding places. Some went mad over the massacre, described by the French as the worst incident of its kind in the history of modern Algeria.

Aid was rushed by helicopter to the village of La Melouza. The French said the first troops to arrive were sickened by the sight and smell of hundreds of bodies.

In one house 5 bodies were piled on one another. Part of the village was put to the torch.

Many of the women were injured as they sought to save their husbands and sons. The French said of the males only boys aged 15 years or less were spared.

The French speculated the massacre was another bloody chapter in the rivalry of the two big Algerian nationalist groups—the Algerian Nationalist Movement (MNA) and the National Liberation Front (FLN).

Union Chief
Helps Locate
Beck's Son

By NORMAN WALKER

WASHINGTON (AP)—John P. English, a leader of cleanup forces in the Teamsters Union, may have accidentally or purposely helped locate a son and relatives of Teamsters President Dave Beck. They had been long-sought for questioning.

English is the union's 68-year-old general secretary—treasurer and guardian of Teamsters' purse strings. His opposition to Beck is believed to be the main factor in Beck's recent announcement he is not seeking re-election as Teamsters president.

It was reliably reported today by English and Dave Beck Jr., and two other relatives or friends of the elder Beck off the Teamsters payroll two months ago.

At that time Beck Jr. and two other Beck relatives were reported in Canada—out of reach of committee subpoenas seeking to compel their attendance at hearings.

It is reported the group, cut off from Teamsters paychecks, finally ran out of funds and had to return to the United States where they recently were served with subpoenas on the West Coast.

The 37-year-old Beck Jr., Joseph E. McEvoy, husband of the elder Beck's niece, and Fred Verschueren Sr. are due to testify before the Rackets Committee here next Tuesday.

Beck Jr. and McEvoy have been linked in prior testimony to Beck Sr.'s complicated money deals. Verschueren is a top Teamsters union auditor on the West Coast.

Beck Jr. has been pictured by earlier witnesses as "spoiled boy" whose father got him a lucrative beer distributorship from the Anheuser-Busch Co.

Reuther Tells Opposition to Gas Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—Enactment of the controversial Harris-O'Hara natural gas bill would result in "one of the greatest windfalls in history" for natural gas producers, United Auto Workers President Walter Reuther said today.

Reuther's statement was contained in testimony prepared for the House Interstate Commerce Committee by Andrew J. Biemiller, legislative director for the 15 million member AFL-CIO, of which Reuther's UAW is an affiliate.

The statement expressed "unalterable opposition" in behalf of AFL-CIO members to the Harris-O'Hara measure. It said passage could "increase the cost of natural gas to consumers by as much as 950 million dollars yearly."

The Federal Power Commission now is required to consider production costs in its price-setting actions in natural gas. The Harris-O'Hara bill would prohibit consideration of costs and make "reasonable market value" the rate-determining factor.

Supporters of the bill spelling out FPC control over gas producers say it would ease present burdensome regulations while keeping adequate protection for consumers. Producers also maintain it is unrealistic to regulate prices on the cost factor because costs cannot be adequately determined in the natural gas industry.

Former Resident of Hope Dies in Texas

Mrs. R. E. L. Harris a former resident of Hope died last night in Bryan, Texas after a long illness. She is survived by her husband, one son Dr. Robert L. Harris of Bryan, one nephew and one niece, J. W. Patterson of Hope and Mrs. Howard Byers of Hot Springs. The funeral will be Friday May 31 in Bryan, Texas.

Only five miles from the center of Johannesburg, South Africa is one of the deepest gold mines in the world—9,088 as compared to the Empire State Building's height of 1,472 feet.

Two Persons Killed, Six Hurt in Accident on 67 Highway Near Fulton

Survives 19 Days on a Snow Covered Mountain

By JOE MCGOWAN

RAWLINS, Wyo. (AP)—"It's certainly a blessing to be alive." Those were the first words Mrs. Dalton LeMasurier spoke to rescuers who found her beside the body of her husband late yesterday on a snow-shrouded mountain-side.

The 45-year-old Duluth, Minn., housewife survived her ordeal for 19 days—more than a week longer than searchers sought the wreckage of the couple's plane.

Her only nourishment was three small pieces of chocolate candy and a bottle of vitamin pills.

With only the remains of the burned-out wreckage and shrubs for protection, Mrs. LeMasurier lived through almost constant storms.

"You can't imagine how awful the weather must have been," she said one rescuer.

She shouted with joy when she spotted the seven-man party. She was rushed to the Rawlins hospital suffering from shock, frostbite, sunburn, exposure and malnutrition.

Dr. Robert D. Paul, Curbon County coroner, said: "I thought it was an echo from one of the fellows. Then we saw this woman—she was wearing her husband's pants and jacket but no shoes—and calling for help."

"We were stunned. Not once did anyone think, even for a moment, that she knows he is still living."

Fear American Student Seized
by the Reds

By FRANZ CYRUS

VIENNA (UP)—Two adventurous American students vanished while taking a closeup look at the heavily fortified Austro-Hungarian border and are feared to have been kidnapped by Communist Hungarian guards, Austrian officials said today.

The two students were identified as Myron A. Gilbert, 20, of Waterbury, S. C., and Warren William Hail, 26, of North Augusta, S. C. Gilbert is a student of political science, Hail a journalism student.

They were identified by Austrian student Jane De Pedro, 22, who had accompanied them on a two-month high-hiking tour across Europe. Miss De Pedro notified Austrian police of the disappearance. An official attached to the state police in Burgenland province bordering Hungary said the two Americans vanished Sunday.

It was not known whether Gilbert and Hail were captured after inadvertently crossing the border or where forced into Hungary by Communist guards at gunpoint.

Miss De Pedro said the two Americans had no intention of crossing the border. She said they "only wanted to have a look across into Communist Hungary."

A spokesman at the U. S. embassy in Vienna said there was no information available there on the missing students.

Wants Laws
to Control Lobbying

B JOHN CHADWICK

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Special Senate committee recommended Senate committee recommended new laws today "to cure the evils and mischief found to exist" in lobbying and campaign financing.

Greater public disclosure of activities in both fields was the key feature of the committee's legislative proposals, in the stated belief that sunlight, as the late Justice Brandeis once said, is "the best of disinfectants."

The eight-member committee, composed equally of Democrats and Republicans, unanimously recommended a bill to shed more light on direct lobbying and on indirect lobbying aimed at putting pressure on Congress. It would provide criminal penalties in these cases for failing to file certain statements or reports, or for filing false documents.

But the committee under the chairmanship of Sen. McClellan (D-Ark.) did not reach full agreement on a measure to regulate contributions and expenditures in election campaigns for federal officers.

All Around Town

By The Star Staff

The Jimmy Daywalt who crashed at the 135 mile mark in the Speedway Classic yesterday gave a safety driving demonstration right here in Hope a couple of months ago. He was not injured in the accident.

Congratulations are due to Mr. and Mrs. Dannie Hamilton who are in the midst of formally opening their completely new store at its very beautiful establishment.

Seems our Congressmen and Senators are screaming for action in connection with the Arkansas River flood which is indeed bad. They should be reminded Red River has been flooding the Fulton area for several weeks yet this writer doesn't recall any of them getting too bothered about it.

At least not enough to keep the Engineers from letting water out of the Dennison Dam when the river was already out of its banks.

Mrs. H. A. McCarty of the Children's Shop, Mrs. W. E. White and Maxine White of the Fashion start next week.

Headon Wreck Occurs Beyond Fulton Bridge

About 1:15 p. m. today two persons were killed and six injured in a head-on collision at the overpass on Highway 67, just west of the Fulton River bridge.

The dead were listed as Patsy Joy Ward, 11, of Palestine, Texas, and Marcus E. Brotherton, Houston, Texas.

Injured were Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Brotherton, of Houston, the dead man's parents, and his wife. Their condition could not be determined immediately.

Ralph Watts, driver of the second auto, was not believed seriously injured but his wife sustained a broken jaw and facial lacerations. Thomas Lloyd Ward, 6, brother of the dead girl, was injured but his condition could not be immediately determined.

The Ward children are brother and sister to Mrs. Watts. The Watts auto was traveling west toward Texarkana and the Brotherton auto was going east toward Hope when the collision occurred.

Details could not be learned immediately as State Patrolman Guy Downing had not completed his investigation.

Officers said the Brotherton's were enroute to Blevins to visit a son and brother, Hap Brotherton.

A Herndon-Cornelius and Texarkana ambulances brought the injured to local hospitals.

Batista Takes Control of Cuban Army

HAVANA, (UP)—Resident Fulgencio Batista today took over the military campaign against Cuba's rebels. There were indications he would set up "death zones" in southeastern Cuba to stem rebel infiltration.

Army general headquarters disclosed a new general operations command, headed by Batista, had been set up to stamp out the rebel threat in Oriente province. Maj. Gen. Francisco Tabernilla also said Cuban Army reinforcements already have been rushed into the region.

Tabernilla said the plan of operation by the new military "braintrust" was designed to force the rebels to stand and fight. He said the strategy will be carried out in a "progressive" manner and indicated it may be necessary to evacuate farm families from the troubled area.

Observers said the evacuation probably would be the first step in setting up so-called "death zones." After the evacuation of the civilians, Army troops probably would be ordered to shoot to kill persons found in the cleared areas, they said.

Tabernilla confirmed his description of the military strategy envisaged to a statement that the government had decided on "consistent persecution" of the rebel forces while taking into consideration the problems of civilians residing in the battle areas.

There were indications that the new plan of action already may have begun. The government newspaper "Tiempo" reported naval warships shelled rebel positions in the neighborhood of Chivirico, 50 miles west of Santiago. The newspaper said Cuban warplanes also started the insurgent forces.

THE BEST CROWD TO FOLLOW IS THE CROWD GOING TO CHURCH

There's No Evil There Except What You Carry With You

HONOR THY FAMILY

for how much you owe them! Certainly, you can never pay the debt incurred in the years of childhood. Money cannot pay for the night spent by your bedside in the time of illness nor for the wise instruction given you. You inherit the blood which flows through your body. You are forever a part of the body and mind of those who gave you birth. You owe a debt to life. Please pay some of it to your parents. Go to Sunday School and church with them for life is of a piece and we belong to each other. You dare not dishonor your father, as mother, or family... or you dishonor yourself. If you neglect them this next generation will pass you by.

YOU IN THE CHURCH THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you" form a combination for good. Be a regular CHURCHGOER and a daily BIBLE READER.

Miss Frances Pauline Frazier Becomes Bride of Rev. William Lee Hinds

Miss Frances Pauline Frazier, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Melson Frazier of Washington became the bride of Rev. William Lee Hinds, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mack Lee Hinds of Springdale, in an impressive double ring ceremony on Sunday afternoon, May 26 at three o'clock in the Washington Baptist Church. The officiating minister was the Rev. Alvis J. Moore, pastor, who read the marriage rites before a large assemblage of relatives and friends.

The place of ceremony, beautiful in its simplicity, was marked on either side by floor baskets of white gladioli flanked by floor standards of lighted candles entwined with English ivy. A seven-branched candelabra entwined with ivy adorned the altar before which the vows were exchanged. The candles were lighted by Miss Jere Hagood of Arkadelphia and Jimmie Tate of Hope, cousin of the bride. Miss Hagood wore an afternoon dress of pink embroidered organza and waist bouquet of pink carnations. Ushers were Frank Horton of Hope, Jim Byrd of Little Rock and Jim Jimerson of Corning.

Mrs. Moss Rowe, organist, played a program of nuptial music preceding the ceremony, and accompanied Marshall Rowe who sang, "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" at the conclusion of the ceremony.

emony. The traditional wedding matches were played for the entrance and departure of the wedding party.

Miss Nancy Frazier was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a becoming frock of pink polished cotton trimmed in Irish lace, and carried a lovely bouquet of pink carnations. Rev. Fred Mills of Arkadelphia served the groom as best man.

The bride entered on the arm of her uncle, W. L. Tate of Hope, who gave her in marriage. Her wedding gown of white dotted swiss was fashioned with full skirt, puffed sleeves and fitted bodice trimmed with Irish lace and self-bowties. Her shoulder tip veil of white tulle was attached to a white bandeau. She carried a white Bible topped by a bouquet of white orchid and carnations from which fell ribbon streamers.

The brides mother wore a becoming afternoon dress of blue embroidered linen and white accessories. She pinned a white carnation corsage at her shoulder. The mother of the groom was attired in a frock of violet sheer with matching accessories and wore a white carnation corsage.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlor. The bride's table, covered with a beautiful crocheted cloth, held silver and crystal appointments. The brides bouquet and that of the maid of honor were used as a centerpiece. Mrs. M. O. Rowe served the wedding cake and Mrs. C. Norwood, aunt of the bride, presided at the punch bowl. Miss Rowena Rowe was in charge of the guest book.

After a short wedding trip the young couple will be at home at El Paso, Texas, where the groom will be stationed with the U. S. Army at Fort Bliss. He is a 1937 graduate of Ouchita college, and received his commission as 2nd Lieutenant upon completion of the college ROTC. Mrs. Hinds was also a student at Ouchita college.

Out of town guests were: Mrs. Wilson Stewart and Mrs. Claude L. Sanders of Shreveport La., Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Dillard and sons, Ronnie and Jimmie and Mrs. Ellis Fagan and son, Freddie of Idabel, Okla., Mrs. Edward Crouse and sons, Donny and Elwood of Broken Bow, Okla., Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stewart and sons, Troy, Paul and David of Houston, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Mack Lee Hinds and Daughters, Misses Linda, Lena and Golda Hinds and Johnnie Hinds of Springdale, Kansas; Mrs. E. E. Kilgus of Springdale, Miss Mary Lou Hinds and Robert Walcher, of Fayetteville and the groom's grandmother, Mrs. R. L. Hinds, of Mangrove, Okla.

From Hope, were the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Emma Stuart, and aunt, Mrs. W. L. Tate, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wylie, Mrs. Clovis Tittle, Charles Tittle, Mrs. Tom McLarty, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Horton, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Parsons and family, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Justus and Lynn Justus. Mr. and Mrs. Claude Wilson, Mrs. Charles Rowland and Mrs. Otis Blackwood of Fulton and Mrs. Fred Mills of Arkadelphia.

The Mayflower II, replica of the Pilgrims' ship will be berthed all summer at 41st Street, New York City.

DOROTHY DIX

Wife Needs Spanking — and She Gets One!

Dear Dorothy Dix: Two years ago, when I was 17, I married a man ten years older. I am an only child and I guess I was spoiled by my parents. Soon after our marriage, Ralph began to complain about my extravagance.

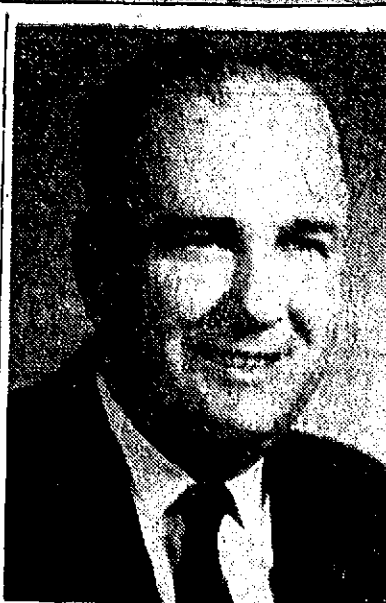

Last week a bill came for an expensive hat I didn't need. Ralph put me across his knee and spanked me. Furthermore he says he will do it again.

My mother advises me to leave him. I'm considering a divorce, although I still love him dearly.

PAM: Dear Pam: Your mother isn't much help in making a woman out of her spoiled baby, is she? Had she administered a spanking or two, it wouldn't be necessary now. Instead of blubbering your woes to mother, take a course in home economics and learn to run a budget. Ask Ralph to cancel all charge accounts until you learn to use them wisely. A wife has responsibilities; recognize and accept them.

Dear Dorothy Dix: My junior prom is coming up in three weeks and I must choose my partner from among three girls. One is the girl I date, and whom I like very much, the second is a friend of my brother, who asked me to take her; the third has asked me to escort her.

JERRY: Dear Jerry: Since you have a girl who is almost a steady, you have a perfect reason for turning down the others. Everyone should know you date the first girl. Naturally you hate to be ungentlemanly, but your regular date has first claim on you.

Rev. J. L. McCrackin
Revival services begin this Sunday, June 2, and will continue for ten days or more at the Garrett Memorial Baptist Church. Morning services will be at 10:00 o'clock and evening services at 7:30. An invitation is extended the public. Rev. Jewell L. McCrackin, Searcy, Ark., will be the evangelist. This is the second time for Rev. McCrackin to be with the church, having been here last year for the revival.

Sunday School Lesson

By William E. Gilroy D. D.
At a time when there is much stress upon brotherhood and a too conspicuous lack of it both at home and abroad, it is worth while to consider the Bible, and especially the Jewish scriptures of the Old Testament.

In this, as many other matters, the Bible has a pioneer aspect as a textbook of what ought to be, and a warning of what happens when what ought to be is not. The New Testament, of course, is the crowning treatise of love and brotherhood, in the example and teaching of Jesus. And such examples as offered by the apostolic brothers, James and John, and Peter and Andrew, are of particular interest.

But the Old Testament, from the stories of Able and Cain, of Jacob and Esau, and the nobler examples of Moses and Aaron, and of David and Jonathan, tells of brothers in tragedy and triumph. And there are the brothers of Joseph, famous and infamous, one at least of whom tried to save him, though the others sold him into slavery.

This is a part of the record of blood brothers, but brotherhood in the Old Testament had a significant meaning in the conception of a closely knit Jewish social life in which individuals had a mutual responsibility for the welfare of all. Laws and regulations seemed designed chiefly to protect the individual, from the wrongdoing of others, and to protect all in the common life from the wrongdoing of the individual.

A high conception of community welfare prevailed, but reprisal by stoning, and other methods, was harsh and terrible when individuals sinned against the community.

But all this, so commendable within the Jewish community, had little to do with those outside, the Gentiles who knew not the law.

And the lack of brotherhood in the ancient tribal days is re-intense hostility in our own time between Israel and the surrounding Arab nations.

The later, great Jewish prophets had a larger and finer world vision. In Israel all nations of the world were to be blessed. Sometimes, it seems to me, world Jewry today, with many notable exceptions, is concerned more with the law than with Israel's later, greatest prophets, and the greatest, noblest Psalms. The Old Testament in its high teachings ought to be providing some more effective solvent of interracial and anti-brotherhood strife.

But every high-minded Jewish idealism could not be a very effective solvent as long as Arab hostility endangers the very life of Jews in their homeland. Until the Moslem and Arab worlds are won to more brotherly and peaceful attitudes the cause of brotherhood and peace will suffer.

Meanwhile what is the rest of the world and the Christian world doing about it? I fear by no means enough. But there is one notable movement that points the way. I have not space to record it here but for readers who have access to Time magazine of April 22nd I commend attention to the story of what a group of Roman Catholic monks in the Atlas Mountains are doing under the leadership of Dom Denis Martin, to promote brotherhood and understanding.

Colonel Bernt Balchen, who piloted Amundsen, Adm. Byrd and other explorers in their flights across the Arctic regions, is also a distinguished amateur painter. His water colors of the Arctic have been individualized against the community.

But all this, so commendable within the Jewish community, had little to do with those outside, the Gentiles who knew not the law.

College Riot Quelled at Illinois U.

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., (AP) — More than 5,000 University of Illinois students staged a campus-wide Memorial Day riot that was quelled after eight hours by more than 200 police officers who fired at least 150 volleys of tear-gas bombs.

At least two co-eds were injured and 50 students were arrested and jailed overnight.

Students used wastebuckets as water-jugs in the riot that apparently got its start as a friendly waterfight between two neighboring fraternity houses.

The day had been designated a study day. Final examinations began Wednesday and are to be resumed today.

Some students will face more than final examinations.

Dr. David Dodds Henry, university president, said, "Everyone involved will be taken before the disciplinary committee."

He said expulsion probably lay in prospect for some.

"It apparently started out innocently enough, but what we are interested in learning is how it grew to such enormous proportions," Dr. Henry said. "A thorough investigation is being conducted and a full report will be made."

Runaway Navy Drone Crashes Into a Field

COLFAX, Wash. (AP)—A runaway Navy drone plane crashed harmlessly in a farmer's wheat field west of here late yesterday after an erratic, pilotless flight over four states.

The converted F6F Hellcat fighter, which ran out of gas, would have been over the heavily populated Spokane area in another few minutes.

Two Idaho Air Guard jets had been sent up and were flying escorts as the drone neared the end of its journey and a Navy jet had been dispatched from Spokane with orders to try to deflect it from the city.

The propeller-driven drone, which broke its electronic controls about over the Death Valley Monument in California, went through weird aerial acrobatics at the end, according to witnesses who saw it dive into a small hill.

"It flopped around, teetered and dove down," said Mrs. Art Jensen.

"A big flare in the sky came just before the crash," said Sherry Daubert, 19, on whose father's farm the drone hit. "Fire went up and the plane burst into flame."

The unmanned plane crashed about three hours after it had broken electronic contact with a mother ship and ground controls. It flew generally northward across parts of California, Nevada, Oregon and Washington at a speed of about 250 knots at an elevation of around 20,000 feet.

Manufacturer Files Suit for $113,937

LITTLE ROCK (AP) Ward Body Works, Inc., of Conway has filed a $113,937.13 cross-complaint against an Indiana firm in a suit where Ward is a defendant.

The Ferguson Machine Corp., and Earl, Ruth, Lowell and Howard Hicks had filed a $150,000 damage suit in federal district court here, alleging that the Ward firm breached a contract. This contract allegedly provided that the Conway firm would manufacture bus bodies for distribution and sale by the Indiana company.

But Ward said in an answer yesterday that the Indiana firm failed to abide by some of the provisions of an agreement and the plaintiff failed to furnish it equipment "adequate to produce school bus bodies economically and efficiently."

The Conway firm also contended the suit was barred by the statute of limitations.

Transportation for Private Students Okay

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP)—The speaker of the Connecticut House of Representatives broke a 133-133 tie vote last night to assure passage of a bill authorizing public transportation for pupils of nonprofit private schools.

Gov. Abraham Ribicoff signed the measure without comment.

All 30 Democrats in the Republican-controlled House voted for the bill, which gives permission to towns and cities to decide by referendum whether to supply the bus service. Chiefly involved are about 70,000 children in Roman Catholic schools.

The tie vote on the bill came after 5 hours and 15 minutes of debate.

The speaker, Nelson Brown, Republican of Groton, then told the assembly: "The chair votes yes. The bill is passed."

A cheer went up and the measure was passed along to the governor for his signature.

The Senate had passed the measure 31-5 more than a week ago. Last Wednesday the bill came to the House.

Its opponents succeeded in sending it back to the Education Committee, which previously had recommended it be rejected.

The bill was destined to die in committee unless a majority of the 279-member House petitioned to get it out again.

The following day, the proposal became a religious issue.

It said, "A political issue can only be corrected at the polls. The one will be."

The capitol reacted to the editorial. The petition was drawn up and a majority signed it to get it out of committee.

Last Sunday, a letter signed by Archbishop Henry J. O'Brien and the two bishops in the state was read at all masses in all Catholic churches.

The letter told members of the church to "carefully observe" what action was taken on the bill in the Legislature.

Next day, 50 Protestant ministers and laymen announced their objection to the bill. They contended public tax money should not be used for private bus service.

That same day, Republican National Chairman Meade Alcorn, a resident of Connecticut, urged Republican leaders in the Legislature to support the bill. He said it was based on what he called the Republican principle of "home rule."

Holiday Death Toll Reaches 94 in Nation

By The Associated Press

Death stalked the nation's highways as usual over Memorial Day but the number of victims claimed was lower than expected.

This morning, 94 traffic deaths had been counted. At least 120 had been expected. Drownings and other holiday-connected mishaps brought to 160 the over-all toll.

However, with many citizens stretching the holiday through the weekend, the fatality list continued to grow.

Today the tabulation stood at 94 traffic deaths, 37 drownings and 35 lives lost from other misfortunes, for a total of 166.

Midnight last night was the close of a 30-hour Memorial Day measuring period which began at 6 p.m. Wednesday. During that time there are, in addition to 92 traffic deaths, 37 from drowning and 33 from other causes.

The National Safety Council had expected at least 120 highway deaths in the 30 hours. Council President Ned H. Dearborn said that "we are grateful" for the lower toll but added: "It's nothing to crow about."

Last year the Council had predicted 110 Memorial Day traffic deaths and the actual figure was 109.

The 30-hour tabulation this year was just about the same as any similar nonholiday period, both in traffic and total fatalities.

The NSC said the normal death toll for a nonholiday Thursday at this time of the year is 75. An Associated Press survey for the period from 6 p.m. Wednesday, May 15, through midnight Thursday, May 16, showed 85 traffic deaths.

Yesterday's count of total deaths, 162 compared with 149 in the 1956 survey earlier this month and 174 for Memorial Day last year, which came on a Wednesday.

The NSC made no prediction concerning the number of traffic deaths for the period from Wednesday through Sunday this year because many offices remained open as usual today.

The last four-day Memorial Day holiday was in 1950. Traffic deaths totaled 347 then.

Says a Strong U. S. Can Help Prevent War

WASHINGTON (AP) Deputy Secretary of Defense Donald A. Quarles called on the United States today to build sufficient military strength "to make certain that war will destroy those who initiate war."

He said this will require an "unflinching resolve" to counter aggression anywhere and "the wisdom and unselfishness to wage the peace."

The objective of such a course, the defense official declared, was not merely to avert war but to see that war is "abolished as an instrument of national policy."

In a prepared Memorial Day speech at Arlington National Cemetery, Quarles warned Americans that they can "avert catastrophe only if we face our danger with calm and steadfast courage." He said, "The unique hope of our generation is that by acting wisely and courageously, we can eliminate war as a pattern of human behavior, as surely as we have

No Information on a Royal Visit

WASHINGTON (AP)—Contrary to reports from London, President Eisenhower has not suggested any specific itinerary for Queen Elizabeth on a trip to the United States.

Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said yesterday, as he has before, that the President and Mrs. Eisenhower would be delighted to have the queen visit the United States at any time she would like to come.

But he said it was not true as reported from London that the President had "officially" invited the queen to visit Jamestown, Va., during the celebration of the 350th anniversary of the arrival of the first settlers.

Hagerty said the government has heard nothing in details from the British government on a royal visit and the President at no time has suggested any itinerary for the queen.
